

2014 Frankfort Community Trust Scholarship Recipients

The Frankfort Community Trust is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2014 Art and Mildred Neal Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $1,000 each. Seniors of Frankfort High School are eligible to apply for the scholarship awarded at the graduation ceremony. This years recipients received a $1,000 scholarship to help with college expenses.

Ashley Joseph is the daughter of Ed and Cathy Joseph of Frankfort. Ashley was the 2014 valedictorian of Frankfort High School. While in high school Ashley was involved in vocal, show choir, scholars bowl, band, National Honor Society, volleyball, basketball and track. Ashley was a State Scholar and a KU Honor Student. She was also TVL all league in volleyball, basketball and track. She also volunteered for the Meals on Wheels and Adopt A Highway programs. Ashley plans to continue her education at Kansas State University and pursue a major in veterinarian medicine.

Adam Koch is the son of Gary and Susan Koch of Frankfort. While in high school Adam was involved in vocal, band, National Honor Society, cross country, basketball and track. Adam also volunteered for the Adopt A Highway and Meals on Wheels programs. Adam will participate in the Kansas Shrine Bowl Cross Country race on July 26th at Pittsburg State University. He is also a four year participant at the state cross country and track meets. Adam set the 1600 and 3200 track records in track his senior year. He also led the cross country team to a state runner-up finish his senior year. Adam will continue his education at Kansas State University and pursue a major in the medical field.

